Founded in 1886, Ewha Womans University is Korea’s very first institution of higher learning for women. It has since grown to become one of Asia’s most prestigious universities and one of the largest women’s universities in the world. Over 3,000 students from more than 70 countries visit Ewha each year through various short- and long-term programs to experience Ewha’s leading global infrastructure and quality education.

As a comprehensive research university, Ewha has 13 colleges and 15 graduate schools and over 530 courses taught in English every semester. The university’s many internationally recognized research institutes encompass traditional areas of strength—law, humanities, and education as well as new areas of excellence—science, technology, engineering, women’s studies, international studies, and Korean studies.

With 25,000 students and 220,000 alumni, Ewha has a strong presence around the world and endeavors to live up to its global reputation. The university is proud of its long history at the forefront of education in Korea and is determined to train tomorrow’s leaders, equipping them with the skills and knowledge to make a difference in the world. In the 21st century, Ewha has become a truly global place to study and research, and to experience life in Korea.

Professional Ewaians At Cultural Exchange

Ewha ISC students will be in contact with their own designated Ewha PEACE buddies, a volunteer group of Ewha undergraduate students, prior to their departure for Seoul, Korea. As students of Ewha, PEACE buddies introduce international students to the campus and community, arrange special events, and help program participants take full advantage of life at Ewha and in Korea.

Questions concerning everyday life at Ewha and extra-curricular activities organized by PEACE buddies should be sent to ewhapeacebuddy@gmail.com.

On-campus Housing

The International House (I-House) and Graduate Student Dormitory (GSD) are on-campus housing facilities located in the heart of Ewha campus. Students will be assigned to their preference of rooms based on the order of submitting applications. Due to limited room availability, students are strongly recommended to apply for admission to the 2016 Ewha ISC.

Credit Transfer

All Ewha ISC courses are credit-bearing. Credits earned at Ewha ISC are transferable to most institutions outside of Korea. However, students are highly advised to consult and obtain approval from their academic advisors at home university. Credit transferability of a Ewha ISC course depends solely on the academic policy of home university.
